A Warrior Is Crowned . . .

The Tau Kappa Epsilon beauty float was patterned along the lines of Greek scenery. The goddess represented by Nancy Jamison was in the act of crowning the Greek warrior, Richard Dinkel. The torchbearers were portrayed by Welcome Groh and Charles Gordon.

Crowd of 12,000 Sees Big Parade Homecoming Day

A crowd of 12,000 persons, the largest crowd ever to see the College Homecoming parade, called this year's parade "the best ever."

Despite a seeming disaster when the float of the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity burned after passing the judges' stand, the Grecian God victory float tied for first place.

Also tied for first place was the ferris wheel float of the Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity. Second place went to the Independent club with their victory bell presentation. Third place was awarded the Industrial Arts growing Bearcat float.

Other placings were Alpha Sigma Alpha and Sigma Sigma Sigma, tied for fourth, and Delta Sigma Epsilon, fifth.

The placings for the humorous floats went to Sigma Tau Gamma, Ag. Club, ACE, Alpha Sigma Alpha and Delta Sigma Epsilon, in that order.

Clowns ratings went to John Harvey, Marilyn Wahlers, Margaret Robison and Dean Doll for the four places, on individual ratings. Group Clowns to Tri Sigs

The best group of clowns went to Sigma Sigma Sigma.

Jalopies had numerous entrants and the Independent Club and Phi Sigma Epsilon tied for first; Sigma Sigma Sigma took second; Sigma Tau Gamma took third; and Tau Kappa Epsilon took fourth.

Tri Sigs Take Variety Show

Variety show awards went to Sigma Sigma Sigma, first, Tau Kappa Epsilon, second, Independents, third, Sigma Tau Gamma, fourth, and Alpha Sigma Alpha fifth.

Overall ratings for participation in the Homecoming activities resulted in the following placements, in order, Independent club, Sigma Tau Gamma, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Alpha Sigma Alpha, and Sigma Sigma Sigma.

Sig Taus Win House Contest

Individual fraternities and sororities participating in the annual house decorations for the Homecoming weekend placed in the following order during the Friday night and Saturday morning judging.

First place, Sigma Tau Gamma, "Run 'em in the Ground," at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Richardson; second, Alpha Phi Omega, "Junk 'em Bearcats," at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mitchell; third, Sigma Sigma Sigma, "Who's Stewing?" at the home of Dean and Mrs. William Brandenburg; fourth, Phi Sigma Epsilon, "Victory Soup," at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McMahon; fifth, Delta Sigma Epsilon, "Springfield's Our Big Catch," at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Alexander.

Armory to Be Dedicated At Official Ceremony

The new National Guard Armory located on the west side of the College Campus will be officially dedicated some day in the near future.

This is the day which National Guardsmen of this area have long awaited, and when it arrives it will be the culmination of several years of planning.

At the time of publication, the identity of the speaker to officially dedicate this building is being held as a secret. However, all reports indicate that the ceremony will feature a noted speaker. Everyone should plan to attend the ceremony.

The ground breaking ceremony was held for the new National Guard Armory, November 13, 1953.

Curfman Represents Maryville Rotary Club At the American Royal

Miss Carolyn Curfman, sophomore, nineteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Curfman, represented the Maryville Rotary Club as Miss Nodaway County in the American Royal Queen contest.

Mrs. Albert Bell was chosen by the Rotary to chaperon Carolyn. Eighteen years ago at the Miss Missouri contest in Sedalia, Mrs. Bell, then Mildred Sorrie, a junior of the College, represented "Miss Maryville."

The high light of the contest this fall was the Coronation Ball which included Faye Emerson as M. C., Patti Page, and Mimi Benzell.

Ag Students Attend American Royal Show

A group of agriculture students, accompanied by instructors, Mr. R. T. Wright and Mr. F. B. Houghton, attended the American Royal Livestock Show in Kansas City, October 16.

Donald Osburn, Charles Mires, and Ronald Dunigan, freshmen agriculture majors of the College, represented Missouri in the national F. F. A. livestock judging contest, October 14.

These Skidmore boys, coached by Marvin Nickell, Skidmore agriculture instructor, earned the right to represent Missouri by winning the state livestock contest at Columbia last April.

Forty-three teams from different states participated in the contest. The Skidmore team received the gold medal which is the high recognition award given. Each was rated individually with Osburn and Mires receiving gold medals and Dunigan receiving a silver medal (second place division).

MacEwan Will Be Featured In College Assembly Friday

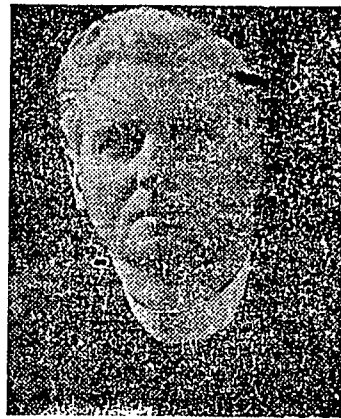

The assembly Friday, October 29, at 10 a. m., will be the program presented by Father Sydney MacEwan, the "singing priest." Father MacEwan is a parish priest in the little village of Lochgilphead, not far from Glasgow. He makes friends wherever he goes, a living example of "How to Win Friends and Influence People."

He has traveled around the world giving concerts. He has been schoolmaster, seminarian, chaplain to the Royal Air Force, and parish priest. Father MacEwan's hobbies are tennis, soccer, and golf.

His program Friday is the following:

Miss Glynos to Speak At Sertoma Luncheon

Miss Alice Eugenie Glynos, sophomore student from Velizy, France, will be the guest speaker at a luncheon of the Sertoma Club to be held today at the Robidoux Hotel in St. Joseph.

Miss Glynos, an English major and a Spanish minor, is helping in the foreign language department of the College.

The High and Mighty . . .

An authentic theme was enacted by the Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity with a ferris wheel in motion. The four lovely girls who rode on this float were Pat Piper, Jean Swanson, Velma Swartz and Wanda Duzger.

Paradise or Garbage?

Two scenes were used in the Sigma Tau Gamma humorous float which received first place in the humorous division. The Garden of Paradise was portrayed by Weldon Dowden as the "football king" and his slave was Virginia Wharton. Kenneth Dowden, acting as a Springfield Bear, was on the back of the float which was called the Garden of Garbage.

Candid Camera Catches Rickenbrode . . . Book Review . .

Mr. W. A. Rickenbrode is pictured above as he is seen each morning in the Business Office. Mr. Rickenbrode came to the College in the summer of 1907 after its establishment in 1906.

In the forty-seven years since the Bearcats, earlier known as the "Normals," first encountered Tarkio at a basketball game played over what is now Tucker's Cafe, Mr. W. A. Rickenbrode, of the business office, has never missed a home game except when he has been travelling outside the United States.

Mr. Rickenbrode followed the Normal team not only because of his love for basketball, but because of his sincere loyalty to the College and its athletes.

The squad had no name other than the Normals until the winter of 1916. The following incident shows how the name "Bearcats" was acquired.

On the morning of the 20th of January, 1916, the squad arrived in Springfield. Here Coach Alan Nee of Drury called up Coach Hanson.

"Hello, Mr. Hanson! Well, this is Coach Nee. Did you bring your Bearcats?"

The Normal team had no name, but they had the "rep" as being regular "bear cat" fighters; hence, the name.

The 1916 season marked the beginning of Varsity football on this campus. Here too, Mr. Rickenbrode displayed his loyalty and interest. That first football season was difficult.

Only a few of the forty-five out for practice had ever come in contact with the game. As might be expected, the percentage of victories was in the minority. This factor did not dampen his enthusiasm, however, and the following season found Mr. Rickenbrode again in the Bearcat cheering section.

Many players have come and gone during these forty-seven years, but no Bearcat leaves this campus without a vote of thanks to one who is constantly behind the team . . . whether the season has been successful, mediocre, or poor, Mr. Rickenbrode's loyalty never wavers.

Tests Bell System

Mr. S. L. Ballenger of the International Business Machines Office, St Joseph, tested the College bell system, Thursday, October 14.

They're Talking About . . .

Homecoming . . . Work on the different floats, stunts, house decorations, and the thousand and one other activities. "Signs" of homecoming planted all over the campus—pushing the different candidates for queens . . . The Pats dominated things, as three of the six candidates were Patricias.

Line Crashers . . . In this particular instance we're not talking about football. It's the guys and gals who always spot a "friend" at the head of the meal lines at the cafeteria . . . After waiting in line for ten or fifteen minutes it is rather discouraging to see four or five "crashers" move in ahead of you. If they were actually hungrier than you, it might be overlooked, but usually you get that urge to kill—and end up waiting in line five minutes more.

Another heart breaking loss at Rolla for the Bearcats. That fourth quarter has beaten us several times this year.

The tunes that come drifting out of Quad 1 . . . the Sig Taus are working on their barbershop singing . . . have serenaded the quads several times.

More About Lines and Problems

HOLD THAT LINE was last week's motto. Now the question comes to mind, how can this line be eliminated?

Time, like money in that it's something no one has enough of, is valuable.

This fact alone is enough to change a person with the strongest integrity into a line breaker.

The unfortunate person is the one with 11:00 and 1:00 classes. Unless his instructor is the sympathetic type and dismisses on time, he is constantly in danger of a case of 1:00 indigestion.

By the time he throws his books in the locker, grabs a wrap, and runs to the Cafeteria, the lines are extending out the doors.

By 12:30 he reaches the serving counter, takes what food can be found, (unfortunately, they run short on most dishes), endures reminders about promptness, and proceeds to the dining room.

Here is the test of endurance and fortitude.

He places his food on a table amidst the remains of three previous sets of dishes. Since he is accustomed to this sort of thing, he is able to distinguish what dish is his by feel; therefore, he closes his eyes to the surroundings and finally eats.

He finishes this so called delicacy at 12:45, excuses himself from the dirty dishes, and heads for class.

Another low blow

By some streak of fate his sleeve has managed to come in contact with the cluttered table, resulting in a dirty appearance at his 1:00 or a skip while he goes home to change.

THE DOLL MAKER by Harriette Arnow.

Gertie Nevels, big, ugly, strong-willed and self-reliant, is capable and efficient as a wife and mother in the hills of Kentucky. But when she is uprooted from her familiar surroundings and thrust into the confusion of war-time Detroit, her efficiency, her authority, her way of life are swept away. The government housing project, where her husband has found a flat for her and their five children, is strange and terrifying. Her neighbors only serve to increase this sense of strangeness. She is suddenly lost in misery and terror. Her consolation is the unfinished figure in the block of cherry wood which she has brought from Kentucky and which in moments of stress she whittles with her knife.

Gertie is intelligent enough to resist the sham and ugliness which surrounds her, but her innocence of spirit is not proof against the distorted values which eventually infect her husband and all but one of her children. In this lies her tragedy, yet she retains the one touch of faith, denied to most, that her good is the right good; even in defeat she triumphs.

THE STROLLER

Now with Homecoming all over and things running pretty smoothly again, we can look back on all those dear memories, to say nothing of all the food that was eaten or all the coffee consumed to stay awake.

Remember the paint that just happened to get on something else or someone else, forgotten lines in the skits, smashed fingers, and the new language used when something went wrong. All those and many more go into making a successful Homecoming.

A fire developed on second floor of Residence Hall this past week. Nothing really to be alarmed about, thanks to a couple of able firefighters. "Smoke, smoke, smoke that cigarette."

"It's great to be alive." Just take a walk around the campus in the brisk fall air and see how pretty the trees look, and the Stroller is sure you will agree, "It's great to be alive."

Economic geography is being offered for the first time and is being taught by Mr. A. J. Cauffield, who is a new faculty member at the Normal this year.

Ex-Governor Dockery spoke at the Normal assembly. He stated that he thought it would not be long before women would be able to vote.

Mattie Dykes was elected president of the Philomathean Literary Society and Francyl Rickenbrode will be president of the Y. M. C. A. for the coming year.

Both the boys and girls' basketball tournament schedules have been set up. The boys' first game will be with Tarkio.

Faculty Notes

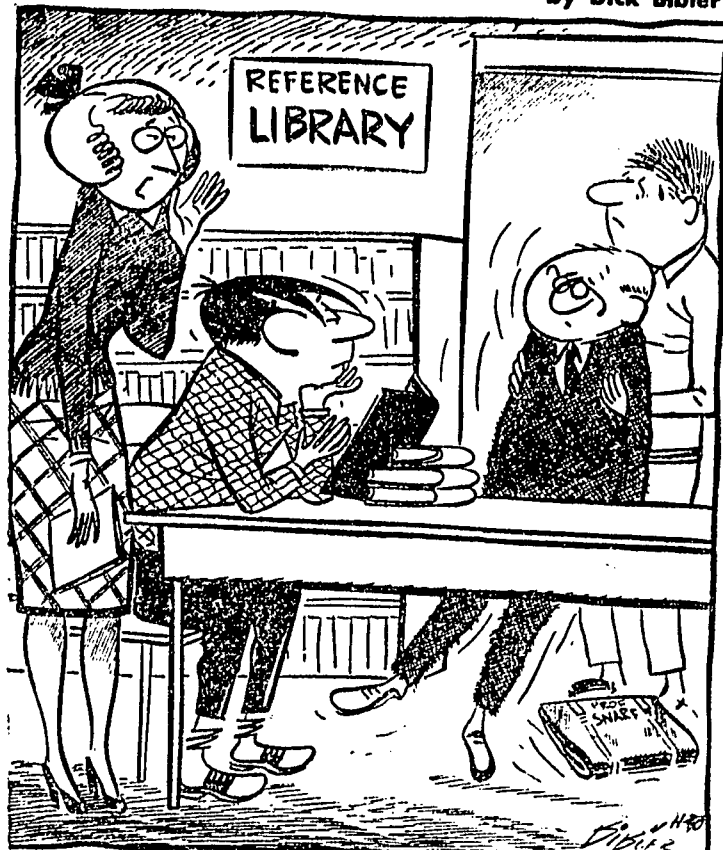

Dr. Harry G. Dildine, member of the social science department, spoke on "The Situation in French Indo-China," Tuesday, October 19, at the monthly meeting of the Tourist Department of the Twentieth Century Club. Dr. Dildine was introduced by Mrs. Carl B. Grahl, president.

Miss Eureka Brown, a new faculty member in the home economics department, is also the director of the home management house. Before coming to Maryville, Miss Brown taught in Asbury College, Wilmore, Kentucky, and in Robinson, Illinois.

Miss Brown did undergraduate work at Southwest State College, Springfield, and obtained her master's degree in home economics from Colorado State College, Greeley, Colorado. She has also done work at the University of Missouri, the University of Chicago, and the University of Illinois. This past summer, she studied at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York.

Water And Its Purification

By Arthur J. Cauffield

While we are particular to choose our food free from contamination under the food laws of United States, are we as careful about our liquid intake of both cold and hot drinks into our bodies?

The only water supply in some localities has too much harmful bacteria and needs treatment to reduce the bacteria to a minimum or so that our bodies may take care of the rest. Boiling water may destroy most harmful bacteria, but this plan becomes too great a task; hence we resort to use of the chemicals to purify the drinking water.

We use lime, aluminum sulphate, and chlorine to make the water fit for service; however, there are some objections to the use of chlorine—because of the odor, taste and perhaps some unwholesome effects on our bodies. Some of our domestic plants do not thrive as well as with the use of clear rainwater.

One way to make water more wholesome for drinking uses is to aerate it by some means of forcing air through it and exposing the water to the sunlight. At the Ashokan reservoir, New York State, one source of New York City supply, the water is forced up into the air about 100 feet and as it sprays through the air it becomes more pure by the contact with the air and sunshine. Many of our lake cities secure purer water by piping it from so-called cribs set out 3 to 5 miles from the shore water which is, of course, contaminated by city sewage, and some cities have mountain supply of relatively pure water piped down to their cities.

Since the inland cities have none of these facilities, one way is to place city water in open vessels to allow chlorine to escape.

Businessmen's Clubs Donate to Band Contest

The Maryville Senior Chamber of Commerce along with the Junior Chamber of Commerce donated money to help support this year's Homecoming Marching Band Contest.

The Senior Chamber of Commerce donated $500 for the feeding of the high school band members who were here to participate in the annual Homecoming festivities. The contribution by the Senior Chamber is an annual contribution which has been received for a number of years.

The donation of $150 by the Jaycee group was initiated as an annual donation for the first time this year. The Jaycee donation is to be used for the purchase of marching band trophies and for expenses of band judges.

Mr. Everett Brown, of the Field Service Office, accepted the donations on behalf of the College.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

Home Managers

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones and Dean and Mrs. William Brandenburg were dinner guests of the home management house girls Friday evening. Those entertaining were Roberta Kordes, Pat Baker, Patty Neff, Arlene Rinehart, Carolyn Risser and the director of the house, Miss Eureka Brown. After dinner the girls enjoyed showing the guests through the house.

Phi Sig Review

With Homecoming of 1954 over, the frat can again start to work on many other activities. Among these will be dances, intramural basketball, and helping the pledges gain a better knowledge of frat life.

Homecoming was a big accomplishment. Earl Bridgewater is to be congratulated on his work as Homecoming chairman; so are the committee chairman of the float and house decorations and skit. Many man hours of labor were put into these, but it was worth the time.

The alumni banquet brought many former Phi Sigs back to their old alma mater.

Surely no one is too worn out. The Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays are around the corner, and more work is needed for the many activities then.

College Heights' News

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith, Malvern, Iowa, now living in College Hts., are the parents of a daughter. Mr. Smith is enrolled as a freshman agriculture major.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Myrtue, Gwendalyn, and Anton, of Mapleton, Iowa, recently moved to College Hts. Both Mr. and Mrs. Myrtue are students at the College.

Alpha Sigmias

With Homecoming over and various borrowed articles returned (we hope), the books are again calling. However, floats, skits, house decorations, and campaigning were well worth the time spent.

The beauty float with its orchid theme was accented by orchid leis sent from Honolulu, Hawaii, by Lorraine Mau's parents.

With its argyle theme, the humorous float was a big hit. The clowns and jaloopies and the "Bearcat's Hildaway" will be remembered as outstanding.

Homecoming was lots of fun for all and a fine example of school spirit, but most of us (including teachers) are glad it is over for another year.

Delta Sigmias

New pledges of the Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority this year are Verla Mosman, Corning, Iowa; Margie Thomson, Fairfax; Sue Taylor, Omaha, Nebraska; Janet Dinkel, Greenfield, Iowa; Ellen Hedstrom, Villisca, Iowa; Lavonne VanMeter, Marysville.

Carolee Evans, King City; Carol Walker, Wiota, Iowa; Mary Griffin, Stuart, Iowa; Katherine Buttermore, Hamburg, Iowa; Shirley Johnson, Stanton, Iowa; Macyl Landphair, Pleasanton, Iowa; Evelyn Mathews, Oregon.

Sandra Craven, Weston; Helen Gillis, Oregon; Sharon Olson, Shelby, Iowa; Rosalie Hamilton, Trenton; Kathryn Taylor, Maryville; Shirley Ellyson, Atchison, Kansas; and Donna Potter, Quitman.

Marcia Ely was selected as recording and alumni secretary and is acting as musical chairman. Shirley Helts is the Delta's new editor and corresponding secretary.

Twenty Years Ago

Miss Blanche Dow, chairman of the foreign language department, will be the principal speaker at the Dads' Day program.

A big conference game between the Beareats and Cape Girardeau is coming up soon. Neither team has lost a conference game.

There has been a new change in the grading system. Since many freshman students are so afraid of flunking, no "I" or "U" grades will be given in the freshman social science, biological science, physical science, and humanities courses. This is a step forward toward more modern education.

Tunics are very much in the fashion spotlight this year.

The newly organized A Capella Choir will sing at the State Teachers Meeting in Kansas City, November 9. Mr. James Velie is the choir director.

An emergency nursery school was opened here in Maryville at the Legion Home in the effort to raise the standards of living of those children coming from unemployed families.

The Capaha Arrow—Cape Girardeau

October 10 and 11 were set aside as Cape State's annual Parents' Weekend. A full two-day program of entertainment was set up, which started at noon Saturday and continued into Sunday afternoon.

Independent Club

"The Great Homecoming" was the theme of the window display in Bakyr's. It really raised quite an uproar by passers-by who saw the bear in a real coffin. Thanks go to Charles Hagee who carried through the idea (meaning the corpse and coffin).

Belated names of officers elected the first of the year are George Green and Fred Whitford, reporters, and Jack Cole, parliamentarian.

The theme of the beauty float "The Victory Bell" made a beautiful sight under the direction of Fred Whitford, Bob Lafferty, and several volunteer napkin stuffers.

"Stretching to Victory" was the theme of house decorations with Don Miller as the artist and other painters who made the job complete.

Betty Crowley, chairman of the humorous float, carried out the theme "Shake Em Off" with Hula girls making up the float.

The Alumni

Mr. E. N. Castle, also an alumnus of this college, is in the Marines. He is a master sergeant and teacher at Natte, Jacksonville, in the Instructor Training School at Jacksonville, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Justyn L. Graham were on the campus for the Homecoming activities. Mr. Graham, who was graduated in 1950, is assistant principal in the Independence school system. While in Maryville, they were the guests of his mother, Mrs. Avis Graham of the college faculty.

Cats Tussle With Mules on Saturday

Saturday afternoon, the Bearcats will encounter the Mules in the Warrensburg Homecoming game. Because this is the Homecoming game, the Mules will be an enthusiastic fired up squad.

With an added number of new boys from Kansas and freshmen from Missouri, the Mules have shown thus far this year a much better team than in the past. The season was started in a very good fashion by the winning of the first three games.

Saturday's game is expected to resemble past Maryville-Warrensburg games in that it will be a very close and hard fought battle.

Bearcat injuries suffered in previous games are healing to some extent. Eddie Messbarger and Mickey Mallen, regular backs, did not play in the Springfield game and although they will probably not be in the starting line up Saturday, it is hoped they will be ready for some action. Ona Monachino has recovered from a shoulder injury and will be ready to play in full strength. Ron O'Dell, who has been out of line up since the second game, is now ready for some action.

"The rest of the boys are in good shape," commented Coach Milner, "except for the usual minor injuries and bruises which I'm sure will be all right by game time."

Bearcats Win For Homecoming

College Bearcats Walk (er) ed to a 20-6 Homecoming victory Saturday afternoon over the Springfield Bears before some 7,500 partisan fans. It also was the final home game for eight of Coach Ryland Milner's players who will be graduated next spring.

Sophomore quarterback Darrell Walker, top scorer in the MIAA, scored the first touchdown, passed to Bill Baldwin for the winner, and carried a third for insurance. He also kicked two conversions.

The victory marked the first conference win for the luckless Bearcats, against two losses. The Bears, hurt by injuries, now have a one won, three lost record in the conference.

A Record Crowd

A warm sun and slight south breeze greeted the shirtsleeve crowd, which was the largest to witness a game in Memorial Stadium. Colorful band uniforms of the more than 1,750 high school students participating in the band contests added to the autumnal setting.

The Bearcats, minus the services of Mickey Mallen and Eddie Messbarger, backs who were hurt in the Rolla fracas and using Ron O'Dell and Ono Monachino, both injured weeks ago only sparingly, were slowed in their offensive.

Baldwin, Walker and Maher stood out on offense during the game, which is the last home game of the season.

Ernie Hutchings, center and tri-captain, and Jim Gillette, guard and tri-captain, were powerhouses in the line, supplemented by the usual fine work of Mark Burns, who was injured in the third and was taken from the field, and Dale Hague.

The eight seniors who played their final home game for the Bearcats were Hutchings, Gillette, Burns, Monachino, Cliff Agenstein, Jim Swaney, Hague and Gerald Walker.

M Club News

With Homecoming over, the M Club is settling down to business. There are a few members who haven't been initiated as yet! They are Mickey Mallen, Fred Maher, Jerry Davis, Doyle Hendrickson, Larry Butler, and Lewis Linville. Smooth sailin', fellows!

Many of the M Club members are making the intramural program click this year, with quite a few of the non-football players participating.

Charles Oellermann, who is stationed at Foster Air Force Base, Victoria, Texas, attended the last meeting. Charley was also here for the Homecoming.

Since the meeting night has been moved to Wednesday, there are quite a few cries from the Dorm brigade; seems that's a 10:30 night! We'll try to make meetings short, "Gigger."

Fighting Tekes Take Intramural Football Honors

Advancing to the Intramural football finals, with a perfect record of 4-0, the Teke Green team ground out a 20-12 victory over the Sig Tau Green team last Wednesday afternoon. Winning the toss and electing to receive, the Tekes took the ball and on the first play from scrimmage scored on a 65 yd. pass play from Logan McGinnis to Don Black for a 7-0 score and were never behind from that point on.

Displaying a deliberate passing attack, the Teke Greens tallied all their points through the air. Midway in the first half after an exchange of downs the Tekes again scored on a pass play from McGinnis to Black for a 14-0 lead.

In the second half, the Sig Tau Green team, sparked by the passing of Jack Spence and Paul Clark and the receiving of Mike Hutcheon and Jay Scardino, came to life and pulled the score closer together, 14-12. Spence pitched to Jack Little for the first Sig Tau T. D., and Spence again fired to Tom Collins for their second and final score. In the waning minutes of the game, Bill Grooms fired a long pass into the waiting arms of Bill Mason who went over the double stripe for the Tau Kappa Epsilon Green team 20-12.

In the Consolation Game, the Sig Tau White team defeated the Phi Sig White team by the score of 7-0. With less than 20 seconds left to play and the Taus on the Phi Sigs' 20 yd. line, Frank Russell pitched a quick pass into the arms of Rex Stuck. Stuck couldn't hang on to the ball and fumbled it into the grasp of Roger Wake's waiting arms. Wake being on the 1 yd. line stepped over and that was the ball game. Both teams, threatening pay dirt at various times early in the game, were never able to gather the force to score, although the Sig Taus came through when the chips were down.

W. A. A.

The members of W. A. A. enjoyed playing badminton Monday afternoon. Anyone wanting to play badminton, ping pong, shuffle board, or aerial darts, should come next Monday at 4:00 p. m.

Some of the members received bowling instructions at the Nodaway Lanes Thursday, October 14. Anyone interested in bowling, see Miss Bonnie Magill. No previous experience needed.

Random Shots . . .

By EDD BUSH

All the old faces around campus last weekend . . . really great to see those old roomies and classmates . . . hope they keep returning in the years to come.

Intramural playoffs in football providing lots of excitement and many tense moments . . . Coach Gregory putting basketball lettermen through early paces . . . laps, laps, and more laps . . . getting them in shape, Coach? . . . Jack Wiechmann still rooting for those Wisconsin Badgers; better get wise, Jack.

Congrats to Bearcats in game against Springfield . . . hooked great gang.

Varsity basketball now in full swing . . . will be looking forward to the unveiling of the 1954-55 Bearcat hardwood five . . . a lot of promising prospects; so every man will be given his all to win a starting position . . . Here's wishing you the best of luck, Coach Gregory.

Intramural Sidelights

In the first round of the Intramural football playoffs the Teke Green team defeated the Phi Sig White team by the score of 19-0.

The high light of the game was Bill Grooms' 80 yard punt return for a T. D. Mixing a well balanced passing game with a sound game the Tekes had little trouble in defeating the Phi Sig White team. The Phi Sigs were by no means a run-away for the Tekes, with Frank Bayless doing the passing and Homer McCoolle and John Barrett receiving. The Phi Sigs put on a couple of serious drives but could not hit pay dirt.

In the second game, the spectators saw a real football game with the Sig Tau Green team and the Sig Tau White team playing to a 6-6 deadlock on regulation time. In the over time the Sig Tau White team was the eventual winner. Both teams were evenly matched with each having a potential passing game and each also adept at advancing the ball on the ground.

MIAA Standings

Kirkville is leading with three victories and no defeats, Rolla is second with three victories and one defeat, Cape is third with two victories and one defeat, Maryville has one victory and two defeats, Springfield has one victory and three defeats, and Warrensburg has no victories and three defeats.
